

Octobris 6. 1643.

At the Committee of Lords and Commons for Advance of Money, &c. and Citizens appointed by Common Councell, for the furthering the present payment of the Fifty Subsidies.

IT is Ordered that the Beadles of every Ward, doe forthwith repaire to the severall persons who delivered the Tickets to such as are to pay their Fifty Subsidies, and that they who gave notice, doe immediately goe to the Houses of those to whom they gave notice, and warne such whose Fifty Subsidies amount to forty pounds, or above, to pay the same into Guild hall, by Monday night next, at their perils. And that such, whose Fifty Subsidies are under forty pounds, doe pay in the one halfe by Monday night next, and the rest on Saturday following, at their perils.

*Martin Dallison
Clerke to the said Committee.*